Stoner Named League's Best Pitcher

Twelve members of the La Cañada High School varsity softball team were recognized by the Rio Hondo League.

La Cañada ace Holly Stoner was named the Rio Hondo League's Most Valuable Pitcher. Alexis Abboud, Sammy Jedrey, Emily Tinkham, Maddy Reilly, Meghan Henry and Taryn Harris were named to the first team, and Gillian Arnold, Abby Au, Amy Markowicz and Megan Reilly were selected for the second team.

In his first year at the helm, head coach Chuck Gunter guided the Spartans (19-7 overall record) to their second consecutive Rio Hondo League championship with an 11-1 record. La Cañada defeated Rialto, 8-2, in the opening round of the CIF-Southern Section Division 4 playoffs before falling to Santa Monica, 2-1.
